Frnka Addresses Football Players

Observations...

By the Editor

This is the last opportunity of the year for you to make some underpinned youngsterer happy. The Brother Peter Memorial Christmas Tree Fund offers you this opportunity. The Christmas Tree will be held December 22 and 23. To date the sum of $118.00 has been contributed, and if you have not given there is still time. Send your contribution to Brother Alexis, President of St. Stanislaus. It will make you feel good to know that you have lent some happiness to a young heart. Better yet, after you have made the contribution drop in on the affair and see the radiant and appreciative faces of the children. Nothing better to give you that little uplift.

There will be a Christmas Matinee at the A & G Theatre, Friday, December 15, at 3:30 p. m. for the children. A program of cartoons will be shown. This show is being sponsored by the employees of the Theatre and the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club. The admission will be a can of food or something to be used in Christmas baskets. The food received will be divided among the various organizations in Bay St. Louis which distributes Christmas baskets to the poor.

In these perilous days, when the nation should be united, and every person should be working hand in hand in a common cause to overcome the great dangers of an all out war, and when the thoughts of mothers and fathers are with their children who are battling for their very lives on the frozen battlefields of Korea, and when able leadership should be displayed by those at the helm of our government, we are confronted with a situation which is appalling. A president who has writing fits. Who by the stroke of the pen destroys confidence. Who by his action makes people wonder. A man who apparently cannot stand criticism or opposition. His latest outbreak is his letter to Congressman Edward Herbert of New Orleans, when he attempts to castigate the request for a day of prayer with unwholesome politics. The office of the Presidency is the greatest within the gift of the people, but the present occupant has displayed very little talent, particularly political. The average kindergarten politician knows better than to put all of his feelings and expressions in writing. It is not a bad habit to write, place it on your desk until the following day, and then tear it up. This method allows you to get it out of your system and still no harm has been done. As small as they appear, the average person's letters of this type destroy confidence in our people.

Our friend, Mr. A. R. Hart celebrated his 89th birthday last week, and we want to join in many other friends in extending to him our congratulations and good wishes. Mr. Hart was editor and publisher of the Gulf Coast Progress in Bay St. Louis for a great number of years. He sold his newspaper at the time he was named Postmaster at Bay St. Louis.

He was an editor of the old school, writing his opinions in clear concise language and to the point. Never dodging an issue, and today at the ripe old age of 89 he still maintains the same high spirit of the days of old. Good wishes to you Mr. Archie and may good health and many more years be yours.

Our little city looks quite bright and has taken on the aspect of a real Christmas time, with the varied colored street lighting which was turned on last night. The Christmas lighting program is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce each year, and the electricians of the Coast Electric Power Association and the Mississippi Power Company volunteer their services each year in putting up the lights. We would suggest however, that the Chamber of Commerce think of extending their lighting for another block on Main street, and then too, not overlook the business section which is fast developing on Neel Avenue. Thanks to all who cooperated so splendidly in doing a good job this year, which will help to build up a little more Christmas spirit.

The annual football banquet sponsored by the Saint Stanislaus Sideline Club will be held in the new dining hall Tuesday evening, December 19, starting at 7:30 p. m.

Coach Henry Frnka has kindly consented to be with the boys for the occasion, or in event that pressure of business keeps him away, he will send a worthy substitute.

According to pretty well formed rumors the following will receive letter-awards: Jimmy Holmes, John Guthrie, Billy Huvar, John Caruso, Gilbert Schmidt, Jerry Rooney, Farrell Gaudet, Robert Castillo, Bobby Faigout, Jerry Lytle, Russell Laguate, Teddy Gabb, Patrick McCurmin, Paul Palermo, Albert Burns, Dick Shannon, Roger Heitzmann, Monroe Kimball, Jack Ehlinger, Jimmy Gilmore, Donald Mathes, Charles Curet, Billy Blake, Luke Caruso, Joe Scaffidi, Joe Kersanac, Donald Luc, Bruce Favre, Frank Whitmann, Ralph Hille, Andrew Saffidi and Mike Haas. The managers, Clarence Kimble and Vincent Libertio, will also receive awards.

The Sideline Club has several trophies which will be awarded for special purposes to the various members of the team.

The Rock-A-Chaws hung an enviable record for the season with six victories, two losses and one tie. They also lost the post-season encounter with Terrebonne at the Cypress Bowl in Lutecher. This latter may have been caused by the most unseasonable weather of the year. The boys just could not get warmed up enough to put a zip into the game.

Garden Club To Give Four Prizes For Best Christmas Decoration

The Bay-Waveland Garden Club Christmas lighting contest has been divided into four entries. Prizes will be awarded for the best doorway decoration; the best porch tree; the best outdoor growing tree; and this year another prize has been added for the most outstanding outdoor decoration.

Rules for entering the contest are: 1. All entries must be registered before midnight, December 24. Call Mrs. J. R. Scharff, 369-W; Mrs. E. P. Kirkpatrick, 246; or Mrs. D. M. Russell Jr., 403. 2. Judging will take place between Christmas and New Year's; so all lights must be turned on during this time.

"Decorations are not going up as fast this year," Mrs. D. M. Russell Jr., chairman of the committee, stated. "Everyone is urged to display some sort of lighting or decoration for the Yuletide season," she added.

PLANS SET FOR BAY HIGH BAND DANCE DEC. 15

The Bay High band auxiliary will sponsor a dance at the Youth Center following the basketball game Friday, December 15.

Music will be furnished by Kramer's orchestra for the general dancing. Admission will be $1.00 per couple and seventy-five cents for stag.

The proceeds of this benefit will go towards the purchase of jackets for the band members.

Bay High Chorus Presents Cantata

The Bay High girls' chorus, under the direction of George Wimberly, will present their Annual Christmas Cantata, December 20, at 10:45 a. m. in the Bay High Auditorium.

The chorus will be accompanied by Mrs. Carl Smith, music teacher who was director of the chorus prior to this year.

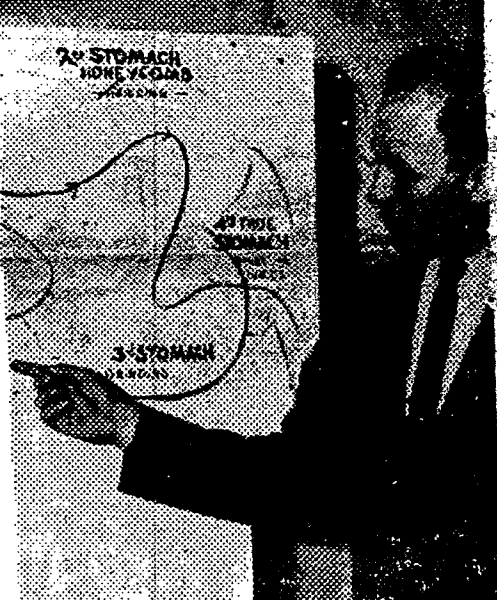

The stage will be dark except for candlelight and will be decorated with pine and poinsettias.

This is the fifteenth year of the Cantata. The girls who will take part are: Pansy Parker, Clara Pucheu, Mary Lou Scianna, Janelle McLain, Barbara Fayard, Betty Jean Morris, Shirley January, Margie Brown, Ruth Arnold, Katie Trianna, Lloa Price, Ann Kenmar, Marilyn Brelaid, Marvion Nell Brelaid, Wilhis Yates, Joy Huet, Betty Culpepper, June Breath, Bertha Ladner, Betty Favre, Florence Stiglett, Lynn Davis, Wilma Jean Moran, Vesta Hartfield, Gail Courge, Lois Stoufflett and Joy Corr.

Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend; there will be no admission.

Feed Representatives Will Speak Here This Tuesday

Three representatives of J. T. Gibbons, Incorporated, New Orleans, will speak at 10:00 o'clock Tuesday morning, December 19, in Bay St. Louis, Howard S. Simmons, County Agent announced. This program is of extreme interest and importance to all farmers in this area, he added.

George Gouguet, Jr., will speak on the latest poultry methods; J. L. Spears on dairy management; and Bill Ettinger, former member of the Nutrition Council of the Feed Institute, on "From Bugs to Profits," a practical, down-to-earth discussion on how science is making more profit for farmers.

Mr. Simmons invites anyone who has criticisms or questions about formula feeds to be present. This is their chance to put the feedmen on the spot.

PLAN ANNUAL CAMELLIA SHOW

A meeting to formulate plans for the Bay-Waveland Garden Club Camellia show was held Friday morning, December 8, at the home of Mrs. Gerald S. Kennedy, Sr., chairman, in Waveland.

The show, scheduled for January 11, will be held at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. It will have as its theme, "June in January."

H. T. Carr of Clermont Harbor was named an aide-de-Camp to Governor Earl K. Long's staff December 11.

This is an honorary position which bestows the title of Colonel upon him.

Wounded In Action

Lieutenant Raymond Thomas Carrio, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carrio of Bay St. Louis, was wounded in North Korea around November 25, according to a telegram received this week. He is now in a hospital in Yokohama, Japan.

Lt. Carrio was stationed with the 8th Infantry, Second Division, U. S. Army. He left for overseas duty September 30, 1950.

Carrio was graduated from Officers' Candidate School at Fort Riley, Kansas, March 25, 1950. He is married to the former Stella Kohler of Fort Smith, Arkansas.

P. M. A. Election Set For Dec. 16 Postponed

Over four hundred people attended the open house when Al-Voight, Chevrolet dealer, displayed the 1951 model Chevrolet.

The new Chevrolet is streamlined in every detail. This year's added features are larger brakes, larger rear fenders, new streamlined grill and a new, convenient dashboard.

Betty Lee Mitchell Is Named Assistant At Le Petit Theatre

E. Gerber, director brought from New York by Le Petit Theatre du Vieux Carre, appointed Miss Betty Lee Mitchell as her assistant for the current play, "My Sister Ellen." After the opening performance, Miss Gerber and her husband left for New York and placed the production in charge of Miss Mitchell.

The play is to have a ten day run, closing with a matinee Sunday, December 17. Miss Mitchell has been asked to assist another director for a future play at the St. Peter street playhouse.

War conditions permitting, Miss Mitchell will join Miss Gerber in New York this spring.

The assistant director is a graduate of the Pasadena School of the Theatre at Pasadena, California, where she had been well trained in directing technique as well as acting. While still in school on the West Coast, and acting, directing and stage managing work shop and laboratory plays, she was given the leading juvenile role in "Harriette" at the Pasadena, State Theatre of California.

She later did hair and hat style modeling in New York; she was then signed by Stock Company at Thousand Islands on the Canadian border where she received eight out of the nine leads in plays produced.

Her last professional commitment was as soloist for Olsen and Johnsons musical "Hellzapoppin" which toured this country. Since returning to her home in Bay St. Louis for a much needed rest, Miss Mitchell has been active with the little Theatre of this city.

Betty Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mitchell, and her pet pastime is oil painting. She is a member of the Gulf Coast Art Association, and her self portrait was hung in the exhibit of the association held recently at Gulfport.

S S C Auxiliary Gives Band Party

The St. Stanislaus Band Auxiliary will sponsor a party for the band members in the school gymnasium Monday, December 18, from 8:00 p. m. until 11:00 p. m.

Working with Mrs. P. J. Treutel, chairman of the party, the ladies of the Auxiliary will prepare and serve sandwiches, cakes, and other "eats" at the gay occasion.

Santa Claus will be on hand with gifts for the musicians and their companions. There will be young people's dancing-pleasure. Table games will be furnished for those not dancing. Brother Canisius will also be on hand with a few party games.

Brother Romuald, band director, and the band members wish to express their gratitude to the members of the Band Auxiliary and to all others who are working to make the party a success.

Christmas Tree Donations On The Increase Drive-In Plans Open House Dec. 22

The Brother Peter Christmas Tree Fund has shown an increase this week; it now totals $118.00 over last week's $49.50.

In a week, the Christmas tree will become a reality for the underprivileged children of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County. In order to make Santa Claus come to these children, all donations from the generous citizens of this area, must come in as soon as possible.

The Christmas tree will be held December 22 and December 23, for the white and colored, respectively.

It has also been announced that the theatre will have a new schedule beginning Saturday, December 16. The Theatre, which lacks provisions for the comfort of the patrons during this period of extreme cold and undesirable weather, will close during the weekdays, and will open on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights.

Independent Cagers' Season Gets Started

The Bay St. Louis Independent Basketball teams have their season well underway. Even though they have lost their first four games, they are rapidly showing improvement.

The girls have played four games, two with Mitchell's Beverage Company, of Gulfport, and two with Modern Cleaners of Gulfport.

Students of Webb School, under the direction of Mrs. Ben Hille, chairman of the Bay-Waveland Junior Garden Club, celebrated Mississippi Arbor Day, Friday, December 8.

The children, assembled on the school grounds, opened the program by giving the oath of allegiance to the American flag; they then sang "American Way." A theme, written by the school children, entitled "Pine Trees" was read by Inez Lewis, and a song, "Pine Trees," was sung by the students. Noelle Sones recited Joyce Kilmer's "Trees" and "Arbor Day," by Marcia Snyder, was recited by Marian Kennedy.

The pupils then planted three pine trees on the lawn of the school. Dan M. Russell Jr. told them of the value of trees, and he presented Mayor Warren J. Carver, who spoke of trees and their meaning to people.

Following the filing of a petition by Otto Rester, Fitzhugh Lee and other farmers asking for a new election of Production Marketing Administration committee-men, the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee directed that this election be held Saturday, December 16.

Cast Ballots Away From Polls

The election was ordered to be held anew, the State Committee finding that the former election was not held properly, that the handling of the ballot boxes and the method of voting was improper, and that the voting places were not in the proper location.

Election To Be Held Anew

The petitioners charged that a large number of those voting in the election were approached and actually cast their ballots away from the designated polling places. That the election was not held at the time or designated place and that people cast their ballots as much as 12 to 14 hours prior to the opening of the polls, and that one of the committeemen of the county had possession of the box and carried it around to various people on the night before and in the early morning hours of the day of election, attempting to use influence upon the electors to cast their ballots for delegates who were the choice of the committeemen.

Could Not Agree

The State Committee directed their fieldman, W. T. Johnson, to meet with the local committee, composed of Randolph Seal, Thomas W. Dossett and Alfred E. Smith to arrange for the calling of the election for December 16. At this meeting the petitioners were represented by Otto Rester and Fitzhugh Lee. The committee and the petitioners could not agree, the committee refusing to place a box at the Leetown School. Mr. Johnson ordered the election to be postponed pending further instructions from the State P. M. A. Committee.

His instructions to the committee, in writing, follows:

Mr. Randolph W. Seal, Chairman Hancock County PMA Committee Rt. 3, Picayune, Mississippi

Dear Mr. Seal:

"This is to certify that I have today met with the County committee of Hancock County, composed of Mr. Randolph W. Seal, chairman, Mr. Thomas W. Dossett, vice-chairman and Mr. Alfred E. Smith, Regular member, and heard the petition of Mr. Fitzhugh Lee and Mr. Otto Rester in regard to the election of community committeemen and delegates which had been set for Saturday, December 16th in Bay St. Louis and Catahoula School. Mr. Lee and Mr. Rester requested that a box be placed at Leetown School. The State committee refused to grant this request."

"I could not get any agreement on this point. I therefore have ordered that the Election set and advertised for Saturday, December 16, be postponed pending further instructions from the State PMA Committee."

Signed: W. T. Johnson District Fieldman Production and Marketing Administration

Follow State Instructions

We are informed by the State Office of the Production and Marketing Administration that all authority of the Administration comes directly from Congress, through the Secretary of Agriculture to the State and thence the County Committees. That a County Committee must follow the instructions of the State Committee and that they cannot arbitrarily refuse to do so, and that the county committee has absolutely no authority other than that vested in it through the State Committee.

In this matter, so we were told, the State Committee wants to see the local committee handle the matter, but in the event the local committee refuses to do so and to follow the instructions of the State Committee, the State Committee will carry its instructions through.

Program Booklets Distributed to PTA

Miss Julia Blaize, P. T. A. program chairman, distributed the program booklets for the year at the December meeting of the Central School P. T. A. held on Tuesday of this week.

The drawings for the booklet were done by Billy and Bobby Clapp. The program carries out the theme of the national program, "The Child-A World Citizen," and presents a well rounded outline, treating the aspect of the child citizen from the physical, mental, moral and material standpoint.

CHRISTMAS 1950

THIS IS TRAGIC TIME. Yet this is the Christmas month when the radio plays "Silent Night," and the television screens carry Christmas scenes, along with glittering inducements to buy from the wealth of stocks now in the emporiums of America. Not even the Wise Men could have matched the gifts that will be sold across the counters in a thousand stores.

Christmas at home, with green trees and blinking colored lights, but icy cold and congealing blood in Korea.

Korea and the Biblical Chosen are not the only tragic world areas. There is lurking danger in old Persia and the Mediterranean nations. The same Bible countries that gave this nation a reason for having a Christmas holiday have now become our imminent hazard.

The artificial happiness of the holiday season is tragic against the slipperiness of the diplomacy going on at Lake Success. There, secret bargains are made more pregnant with mortal danger than a King Herod could have conceived with the aid and advice of the cynical Pharisees and Sadducees of that day.

The bells will peal this month, and choirs will sing, and Congress will debate the leveling of heavier taxes than ever existed in Bible times, these to be collected with more zeal than was exercised by any pagan monarch of old. These levies on America's wealth will not go to support some royal family but to produce guns, and tanks, and bombs, more deadly than the pestilence and death accompanying the galloping horsemen of the Apocalypse.

The doves that Mary bought for offerings, with the classic farthings of old, are the useless symbols of today's coins. New money is rapidly losing its marked values through the tricks of governmental budgets inflated to buy the uncertain loyalties of our reluctant allies.

This is presumed to be a month when the symbol is the May of Peace, owning no property, while pointing men's minds to those ideals of goodness, fairness, justice. Now there is a diminishing idealism and a growing cynical desperation. A nation chants majestic hymns to a risen Savior while wondering how to defend itself from Communism whose aim is to enslave men's minds as well as capturing their bodies. The promises of diplomacy are today's apples of Sodom.

Christmas was born of those ideals that made saints of men and women willing to be martyrs for the liberties of the mind and spirit.

Must this nation now be purged through the long sufferings of war, or can it still learn, in time, that the principles of human morality, and national integrity, are not diplomatic pawns; that they are beyond dollar costs and worth every sacrifice?

"For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it," said the Man whose birth is remembered this month, but whose precepts are forgotten.

We think the Christmas editorial quoted above and written by U. V. Wilcox in his "Washington Backgrounds" is most timely and truly depicts the Christmas Spirit prevailing throughout this great nation. It struck us very forcibly, and we felt compelled to pass it on to you, our readers.

NEWS OF OUR COLORED PEOPLE

Building At St. Augustine Nears Completion

BY SENIOR CLASS OF ST. ROSE DE LIMA

This picture shows the progress in construction of the new building at St. Augustine's Seminary. When completed, it will be a grand addition to the other fine buildings on the grounds. It is 90 feet from end to end. The porch is 30 feet wide. The pillars and super structure are of poured concrete from Jackson, Mississippi. Work on the roof will begin this week. The porch is not finished as a stone rail will be erected above its roof.

The building will be three stories high and will serve many purposes. The ground floor will have a science room, general office for the mailing and circulation, department, and a store room. The middle floor will have the parlors, lobby, mission museum, porter's office, and office of the Procurator. The upper floor will be used as sleeping quarters for the students.

The building will cost a neat sum. Reverend Father Rector says there is still time to make a contribution towards the building fund; the cause is certainly a worthy one, so if you have not sent in your donation, please let that item head your Christmas shopping list—and let's do our Christmas shopping early.

Mrs. Milton J. Bienville, Jr., the former Mary Janet Luce of Henderson Point, who was married recently at St. Paul's Church in Pass Christian.

Ethel Huval And Dupre La Point Jr. Married In Lafayette Ceremony

Lovely in its fall setting was the marriage of Miss Ethel Huval, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huval of Lafayette, to Dupre LaPoint, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lapoint of Bay St. Louis, which was solemnized recently in the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in Lafayette.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. A. F. Isenberg officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Huval, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length gown of moss green velvet, fashioned with a fitted bodice, with sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Her sleeves were three-quarter length, and she wore half-gloves of dark green velvet and dark green shoes. Her hat was of matching moss green velvet, trimmed with pink dotted meline. She carried a bouquet of gold baby chrysanthemums with metallic meline leaves and long streamers of gold satin ribbon.

Jeanne Guidry, maid of honor from Lafayette, wore a gown of dark green velvet, fashioned exactly like the bride's. Her hat was of dark green velvet, encircled with interwoven meline and pearls.

Savannah Prejean, also of Lafayette, was the only bridesmaid, and she wore a dark green gown which was identical with the maid of honor's. Her hat and bouquets were also identical with the one worn by the maid of honor.

Best man was Neil Walker and Menou Arceneaux was groomsman; both are of Bay St. Louis. A reception was held at the home of the bride. Receiving with the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huval and Mr. and Mrs. Dupre LaPoint, Sr., the members of the wedding party and James Lapoint, brother of the groom.

The Huval home was decorated for the occasion with bouquets of gold chrysanthemums and satin streamers.

A lace tablecloth overlaid the cake table, and small bouquets of gold chrysanthemums circled the five-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The circular skirt ended in a chapel length train. The fingertip veil of plush illusion with shorter face veil was attached to a sweetheart bodice under the chin. Gex, Jacobi, Team Captains Win Highest Seller Awards

The annual Classic between the Fleas and Flies ended in the smallest score made in many years. The Fleas took the game 12 to 8.

A cold Northwest wind played havoc with play throughout the encounter. Those on the sidelines made good use of the blankets provided for their use, but the spectators forgot to bring along any blankets and it was only the Polar Bears who were able to remain until the bitter end.

On the opening of the game the Fleas received. Donald "FeeWee" Cuevas set up the score with a forty yard run. Mighty Kenneth Kramer went over for the first marker. The attempt at conversion failed.

In the third quarter, Leroy Neaise scored on an end-around play after Gus Thomas had set up the touchdown by skirting end for 45 yards.

In the fifth quarter, the Fleas marched down field with a sprinkling of fine plays, but were held on the three yard line by a determined stand on the part of the Flies.

In the last quarter, the Flies were up against the wall. They were forced to punt behind their own goal line, but before they could get the kick away, the punter was tackled and the Fleas hung up two points on a safety.

A short time later, on a partially blocked punt the Fleas took over the ball on the Fly 35. Yates went through center for the lone touchdown of the Fleas. Again the attempt at conversion was blocked. Final score, Fleas 12, Flies 8.

The Captains of the two teams were Walter Gex, III, and Herman Jacobi, respectively. Walter won the football for the highest seller of tickets while Jacobi won the Stanislaus jacket for being next in line.

Other Captains were: Joe Carroll and George Cassard of the Fleas, and Edmond Fahey and Parker Maurie of the Flies.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Wet Grazing On Winter Pastures

By HOWARD SIMMONS

Everyone with livestock or dairy cows wants to make the best and most profitable use of winter grazing crops. To do this, watch closely and prevent overgrazing or bogging the land.

Change livestock often from one grazing area to another. Use of an electric fence is a good way to secure this alternate grazing.

When wet weather comes, it is time to graze sod land oats, as others get boggy.

Oats do not grow much after cold weather sets in, so look towards the time for grazing fescue or ryegrass.

New plantings of fescue should not be grazed heavily the first season. Turn livestock on those areas for only a few hours at a time.

Ryegrass which was planted on clovers in sericea, in kudzu, or on sod can be grazed during the winter.

While taking good care of temporary grazing, don't let the hogs ruin the pastures during the winter. Such rooting makes holes in the pasture which will stand, and leaves the pasture too rough to mow next year.

PROTECT DAIRY HERDS
Milk yields cannot be kept up during the winter unless cows can be kept in loafing barns or sheds during severe cold. A dairy cow is too thin haired, thin fleshed and nervous to stand out in extremely cold weather or sleep on cold, wet ground.

Loss of an estimated 1,500,000 pounds of milk on Mississippi farms resulted during three days of the recent November freeze. At four dollars per hundred pounds, this would be a $72,000 loss.

If all dairy cows had been protected during those three days, and given plenty of good hay or silage, there would have probably been enough increase in production to have more than paid for the extra roughage consumed.

Where barn space is available, use it to protect cows from cold weather. But a shed, closed in on at least the north and west exposures, is good.

Provide a hay rack through the center of the loafing barn, and a 30 inch trough or manger at the base of this rack and 18 to 20 inches above the floor. Location should be near the milking barn.

If cows are to be run loose in the loafing space, floor area per cow should be 60 to 62 square feet for Jerseys, 65 square feet for Guernseys and 75 or even 80 square feet for Holsteins and Brown Swiss.

WOOD FIRES
As has too often happened at this time of year, fire is destroying valuable timber and ruining future forest prospects in Mississippi. Last year such fires caused timber owners an estimated $2,000,000 damage, which amounts to enough lumber to build 5,000 five-room houses.

Here are a few simple rules to help prevent wood fires:
Be careful with camp or warming fires, making sure they are "dead out" before leaving.

Be careful that cigarettes and matches are out before tossing them aside.

When burning trash, see that the fire cannot spread to nearby woods. It is best to make a fire break around the trash before burning.

Before burning large areas, place fire lanes around them. Burn in late afternoon when there is little wind, and set fire against the wind.

To Receive Prize Checks From U G

Approximately 475 boys and girls from 58 counties will soon receive checks aggregating $2,452.51 to supplement the prizes they won in junior classes at the Mississippi State Fair in October.

The bonus awards are being paid by the United Gas Companies and are equal to 50 per cent of the amount paid by the Fair Association.

In most cases distribution of the awards will be made by the county agents or vocational agricultural teachers.

In a letter addressed to J. D. Davis, Jackson, manager of transmission and producing properties for United Gas in this area, the Executive-Secretary of the State Fair, J. M. Dean, thanked United Gas for its participation, stating, "The assistance given has meant much to the Juniors as well as to the Fair as a whole. Our Fair is fast expanding and in years to come will reveal just what your cooperation has meant to our state."

This is the third successive year in which United Gas has awarded bonus premiums to Junior winners at the State Fair. In addition to these awards, United Gas sponsors the 4-H Club Junior Leadership Program which awards trips to regional, state and national 4-H club meetings to outstanding club members.

Mrs. Hayden Is Honored At Cradle Shower

A surprise cradle shower honoring Mrs. Bernard T. Hayden was given in the home of Mrs. Francis J. Hursey, on Sherman avenue, with Mrs. H. E. Spradley as co-hostess.

Upon her arrival at the party Mrs. Hayden received a lovely pink carnation corsage given by the hostesses.

Mrs. Hursey then escorted the honoree to a chair of honor in the center of the guests where a white and blue bassinet, which was laid with gifts, was rolled into the room and presented to her. Mrs. Hayden opened each gift and displayed them to the guests.

Mrs. Fabian Wambgans won the first prize in a "Guess the Number of Safety Pins in the Jar" game and Mrs. Margaret McGrath was awarded the entrance prize.

The refreshment table was covered with an ecru lace cloth with all decorations and refreshments in the pink and blue theme.

At each end of the table were lighted pink tapers. The center piece was a mass of white flowers in a bassinet shaped container with a lovely blue nylon net lace ruffle effect over white satin.

A gift from Mrs. Hayden's mother, Mrs. Peter A. Chopin, of New Orleans was a conversational piece. Dozens of pink rose buds were arranged in a white cradle musical vase which played the tune "Rock-A-Bye Baby."

Mrs. Catherine Hursey prepared punch and sandwiches, meats, and cakes were served by Mesdames Elizabeth Jenkins, Holland Miller and Margaret McGrath.

Guests present at the shower were Misses E. Jane Bang, Patsy Hayden, Amelia Courteney and Mesdames Alma Hayden, Bernie Loze, H. W. Grifon, Martin P. Kelly, Liddell Caffrey, Willie Bourdin, Jr., Fabian Wambgans, Ralph Gordon, Guy Bufkin, Leo Allen, Newt Goodwin, Margaret McGrath, Sylvester Pagano, William S. Rembert, Leroy James, Willie Bourdin, Sr., Holland Miller, Elizabeth Jenkins, Catherine B. Hursey, Marilyn Ladner, Maggie Farrell, Justine Hayden Wedgeworth, and Brayan Bohn, Sr.

Warren J. Farrell, of Pass Christian and Shreveport, La., has been recalled into active duty with the U. S. Navy. Warren has resigned his position as geologist with the Gulf Oil Company in the Shreveport office and plans to remain at his mother, Mrs. Martin Farrell's home at 505 East Second Street, until his scheduled departure for Dallas, Texas, on December 16th.

Warren is a veteran of World War II serving over two years duty aboard a P-T boat.

Arrives from China

Mrs. Zinovia Pavlovsky arrived in the United States last week from China, following a 16 day boat trip, and has joined her daughter and her family, Sgt. and Mrs. E. J. Musser, and children, East Beach Cottage. Mrs. Musser's father was scheduled to accompany his wife to the States but has been confined to the hospital in China. He is reported improving, and hopes to join his family in Pass Christian very soon.

When asked how Mrs. Pavlovsky would like our country compared to her home in China, Mrs. Musser stated that there is no comparison in the two countries. That the United States offers security and provides comfortable homes for its citizens.

Mrs. Musser stated that in China a family can not accumulate any personal belongings; that the Chinese often stone white citizens and drive them from their homes.

She said that during their stay in China they had been forced to pack just what belongings they could carry with them and leave their home and all its furnishings.

Mrs. Musser echoed every citizen's sentiments with her statement that the United States is a wonderful country.

Santa Comes To Town

The young citizens of Pass Christian will be thrilled to learn that the Lions club has received word from the North Pole that Santa Claus will include Pass Christian in his pre-Christmas travels.

He is expected to arrive in the Pass via the L. & N. Railroad on the Saturday before Christmas, December 23rd, and will parade through the town.

KEEL-KLYCE

Miss Mildred Klyce, daughter of the late Mrs. Zoe Klyce, of Hammond, Louisiana, became the bride of Carl Keel, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Keel, of Pass Christian, Thursday, November 23.

The wedding was solemnized at the Holy Ghost church in Hammond, with Rev. D. P. Brady, O. P., performing the ceremony. The bride entering the church on the arm of her brother-in-law, D. M. Sanders, was radiant in an ankle length gown of white satin brocade. Her finger tip veil of illusion's only trim was seed pearls scattered over the crown.

She carried a bouquet of feather white carnations centered by a white orchid.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Edgar McNabb, matron of honor. Mrs. McNabb wore a blue gown.

Conrad Moran, a cousin of the groom, was best man. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Sanders.

The traditional wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. J. H. Broyles, an aunt of the bride. Mrs. Jewel Richardson, also an aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

Following the reception the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Orange, Texas. As a going away outfit Mrs. Keel wore a tan suit with brown accessories.

Out of town guests at the wedding, which was attended by relatives and a few close friends of the families, were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Keel, parents of the groom, and Miss Carol Knost, of Pass Christian, and Mrs. David Moran and Mr. and Mrs. David Slagel, of New Orleans.

Mayor Francis J. Hursey has announced that the City of Pass Christian has purchased Christmas lights and decorations to brighten the business district for the coming holidays.

The men at the local fire station are giving their time and efforts to assemble the strings of lights and will erect them across the main business streets.

Circle No. 1, Trinity Church

Guild held its regular monthly meeting at the Parish House Monday, December first.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. D. Taylor, Sr. and Mrs. Clarke led the meeting in prayers.

Mrs. William Lamb gave as her subject: What the Bible has to say about Clothes. Her program was most interesting for she took the progress of clothing from leaves to the purest white raiment.

Reports of various committees were heard and final plans made for the Bazaar and Christmas dinner which will take place on Saturday, December ninth. The bazaar will open at ten in the morning and the dinner will be served at six and seven thirty that evening. Tickets can be purchased at Hanson's Drug Store. After the meeting had adjourned with a prayer offered by Mrs. Clarke, the hostesses Mrs. C. R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Heis-tand served a delicious tea. Remember the Bazaar at 10:00 a. m. and the dinner at six o'clock and seven thirty on December 9, 1950.

READ THIS... then THINK

"BACK in blazing Hinckley, death was hunting out most of the remaining inhabitants. More than a hundred took refuge in a swale along the railroad tracks and there they were burned to black crisps or gray-white ashes, every last one. Allen Fraser was near enough to hear them die. 'When the fire wave hit that swamp,' he said, 'there was one piercing cry of anguish, then everything was still except for the howling of the wind.' Fraser and his family withstood the fiery blast by getting into barrels of water. . . . What started this fire that became such a tremendous sea of flame and rolled for twenty miles and took 418 lives?"

—from Burning an Empire, the first book about American forest fires, by Stewart Holbrook, published by The Macmillan Company. Quoted by special permission.

Most forest fires are started by little acts of carelessness, and every year raging conflagrations destroy millions of dollars worth of trees—holocausts that once were no more than single sparks.

The terrifying, explosive horror of a great forest fire can't be imagined. It must be seen. If you have ever seen one, you will stop and think . . . and ask yourself . . .

H. W. LeTissiers Accept Chairmanship Of Makrohor Fund In Bay St. Louis

Mississippi, which according to the FBI has one Communist, is leading the world to a genuine understanding of what Communism is.

According to citizens from more than a score of cities in this state, Communism is Makrohor, a word hard to pronounce, but once its significance is understood, one equally hard to forget.

Women softly weeping, while helpless husbands, nating themselves for their impotence, pace the floor of nearly every home in a little mountain village in Macedonia, a town whose streets are silent, for there no children play, a community whose schoolmaster is missing because he dared write to Helena, Arkansas, requesting friends to "say a little prayer," that is Makrohor (pronounced Mack-ra-hor-e).

But the schoolmaster isn't needed, for all the children of this, and many other border villages, between the ages of three and 14, were kidnapped by Communists in March, 1948.

Disfranchisement look longingly beyond the mountains of Greece over which trudged, at bayonet point, the hope of their hearts, they pray for the lives of their little ones, while fearfully realizing it may be better they are dead.

From behind the iron curtain come lies about their loved ones, letters, even, about sleeping on sugar sheets. But from Rumania, Hungary, Poland, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Yugoslavia or Albania no child has been returned.

The worst crime of all ages has taken place in our generation. Mississippians abhor cowardice, but they forgive the inactivity of fathers whose children are hostages in the hands of the Soviet hordes.

Mississippi mothers weep for the women of Greece, knowing they, too, would have scolded and named their babies so they would not be taken by the Stalin directed guerrillas. And from Mississippi comes a protest of Makrohor.

People, all people, everywhere, must be made to see how awful is communism, how despicable the Soviet system that takes children from their beds, their school seats, or their play, to unknown lands where love which the Lord intended to be their heritage cannot hope to reach them.

People, many people, won't read, or cannot. Maybe some of these will look at pictures. So Mississippi is sponsoring a worldwide art competition. Painters of all lands are invited to put on canvas their protest of pitiful Makrohor. Through the international language of art, Mississippi hopes to arouse the indignation of the world, to brand Communism with Makrohor.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Le Tissier have accepted the chairmanship in Bay St. Louis whose share of the Makrohor fund is $15.00. Mr. and Mrs. Ad Lang have been appointed for Pass Christian. The quota there is also $15.00.

L. & N. To Hold Train For Sugar Bowl

For the accommodation of the patrons from the Mississippi Gulf Coast who desire to witness the Sugar Bowl football game, train No. 12 will be held to depart New Orleans at 6:30 P. M. on Monday January 1st, 1951 only.

Garden Club group Holds Dec. Meeting

The Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs held its December meeting at Gulf Park College recently. Mr. and Mrs. Will Adams made several Christmas arrangements. They prefaced their program by stating that "We should all, at this time, pledge ourselves to this way of life and democracy."

Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, president, announced the appointment of Mrs. Mary Belle Beeman as chairman of the 1951 Pilgrimage, and Mrs. Maud McDaris as publicity chairman.

Long Beach won the award in the year book contest; the Acacia Garden Club was second and Pass Christian, third. Mrs. Wiggins announced that all scrap books to be judged must be turned in by March 15; the awards will be made at the April meeting.

The newly appointed pilgrimage chairman stated her tentative plans for the Spring tour. She plans to obtain outside funds to finance the expense of the affair. Her first meeting will be held Friday, December 8, at 10:00 a.m. at Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab's home.

The entrance prize, a table arrangement of silver leaves and red carnations, was won by Mrs. Thomas Schaffer of Bay St. Louis. Other prizes were won by Mrs. Alread, Mrs. Bidwell, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. A. G. Dantagnan, Mrs. De-deau, Miss Mary Boggs, Mrs. Slay, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Pykes, Mrs. Gilmer, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Lidsay, Mrs. Moorhead, Mrs. Grosberg and Mrs. Moran.

Jeffrey Favre Takes Part In Cross-Country Contest

Hammond, La., Dec. 8—Southeastern Louisiana College's cross country team—13 strong—opened its winter Gulf States Conference competition Saturday, when the Lions participated in a three-way cross-country run in New Orleans.

The team, first in Southeastern's history, met Loyola University and Southwestern Louisiana Institute in a four-mile race at Audubon Park.

Each College, according to Coach David Harper, the Lions' track and field mentor, entered as many runners as it wanted. However, only the first five runners of each team counted in the least number of points to win scoring. The team scoring the most points won the race, Harper said.

Southeastern's squad was headed by William Casey, champion two mile, from Chicago, Ill., who placed third in the annual Turkey Day race in New Orleans Thanksgiving. He got strong competition from Loyola's Harold Chauvin and Tom Gavin. Chauvin ranked second in the Turkey Day event and Gavin, fourth. The Green and Gold's other entry in this race was James Berry of New Orleans, who finished tenth.

Lion Harriers who competed, were, in addition to Casey and Berry, Allen Bostick, Emmett Rogers, and Dave Taylor, all of New Orleans; Digby and Robert Palmer of Amite; Carroll Leggett and Carter Doughty of Holden; Jeff Favre of Bay St. Louis; Miss. Ibin Caceres of Puerto Rico; Robert Allen of Hammond; and Charles Jarreau of Baton Rouge.

Road Program Puts In Force $2,020,948.37

Jackson, (Special) — Mississippi's pay-as-you-go road building program, since put in operation last July 1, has put contracts amounting to $2,020,948.37 in force.

Figures released by the Highway Department are accumulative through November 15, 1950.

Contracts awarded under the pay-as-you-go program cover 18 separate projects in 18 counties.

Revenue to finance the program comes from 1 1/2 gasoline tax supplemented by Federal-aid funds.

One cent of this fund comes from an increase in the State gasoline tax of 7c, which was raised by the legislature earlier this year from 6c. The increase became effective on July 1st.

Under administration of the collection and distribution of gasoline taxes, first money to the Highway Department through this program was available on September 1st.

Gasoline collections distributed in October, the last month reported, totaled $2,327,468.51. Of this amount, $1,419,820.54 went to the Highway Department, with $473,273.51 being earmarked for pay-as-you-go construction.

J. McDonald Plays In State Orchestra

State College, Miss.—The Collegians, dance orchestra at Mississippi State College, will play for the annual Inter-Fraternity Dance in the Cafeteria Saturday night. Last Friday night they played in competition with the Ole Miss Bebelars at Clarksdale.

This year's Collegians place the emphasis on music styled for dancing and have several of their old stand-bys such as "Begin the Beguine," "Southern Fried," and "Opus in Pastels." Some of their newer arrangements include "I Cover the Waterfront," "Star Dust" played in the Miller mood, and a medley of Ellington and Gershwin numbers.

The personnel of the band this year consists of: William F. "Wickie" Sparks of Corinth, leader; Jimmy H. Nichols of Aberdeen, business manager; James Everett Stone of Pascagoula, Leon Faulkner of Aberdeen, and Gene Lewis Dingleux of Yazoo City. Trumpets: Sammy L. Corbin of Greenwood, Claude Harrison of Corinth, and Oscar H. Johnson of Purvis.

Trombones: Bill W. Adams of Kosciusko, Talmadge L. Myrick of Laurel, and Edward Butts of Columbus. The rhythm section is made up of Jimmy C. McDonald of Bay St. Louis, drums; Julian R. Long of Golden, guitar; Ed Bryd of Corinth, piano; and Bobby L. Brown of Columbus, bass.

The IFC Dance Committee, headed by Joe Idiazquez of New Orleans this year, has the job of constructing the backdrop, Johnny Prince of Shuqualak, IFC president, says that the backdrop for the dance will follow a Christmas theme with Santa Claus, mistletoe, pines, cedars, and snow in the scene. Each of the twelve fraternities will be represented by an individual stocking on the backdrop.

The dance will include the usual IFC leadout and four no-breaks.

WINS 4-H AWARD

Chicago—As a reward for his constructive efforts in soil saving, 15 year-old Jimmy Steve Busby has been named the top Mississippi state as well as sectional winner in the 1950 National 4-H Club Soil and Water Conservation awards program.

Jimmy's award is a gold watch engraved with his name. As sectional winner he received an all-expense trip to the 1950 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, also provided by The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company.

The program is conducted by the Extension Service of the State Agricultural College with USDA cooperating.

On his father's 223-acre farm in Choctaw County, Ackmenman, Mississippi, Jimmy has been engaged in soil and water conservation practices for the past two years.

Jimmy has concentrated most of his efforts in soil saving on conservation of top soil, proper drainage and the planting of cover crops and legumes. Last year, Jimmy and his father made a new channel ditch through the middle of one field and have constructed a new box in the older ditch to stop a wash out.

In his fire prevention effort, Jimmy built fire lanes around several acres and cleared the undergrowth. The grasses in the pasture, cover crops in the field and leaf mold in the forests help to conserve water. He has set out 2,000 bi-color lespedeza plants and planted two pounds of seed to help in his wildlife program.

Jr. Jaycees Seek Outstanding Man

The deadline for receiving nominations for "Mississippi's outstanding young man of 1950" is midnight, December 17.

This announcement was made today by Emmett Rees, Lexington, State Chairman for the Jaycee Distinguished Service Award. He further stated he felt that the outstanding young men and women of the state have the opportunity to recognize them.

Nomination blanks and further information about this award can be secured by writing the State Jaycees, P. O. Box 1201, Jackson.

"The active participation of young Mississippians in civic affairs is definitely on the increase," Reese stated after reviewing the civic records of the twenty young men already nominated for this annual Jaycee award.

He added: "In critical times such as we are now witnessing, and with the increasing trend toward individual selfishness, it is refreshing and encouraging to learn of the untiring and unselfish efforts constantly being made by the young men of our state in serving their fellowmen."

All nominees will be guests of the Jaycees at a statewide banquet on January 27 at which time Mississippi's outstanding young man of 1950 will be announced.

Objectives For Heart Control Program

The enormity of the heart disease problem, its complexities, and the lack of diagnostic and therapeutic procedures capable of mass application have tended to keep solution of the problem almost wholly in the realm of wishful thinking. Public health authorities and heart specialists have frequently called attention to the necessity of attacking this problem of heart disease control on a community, state, and national scale as well as on an individual basis.

It is felt that certain public health techniques which have proved effective against other types of diseases should be adapted in our efforts to control diseases of the heart and arteries.

For the past several years medical men have visualized a three-fold attack: first, as the basis step toward solving the diagnostic problem, the carrying forward of an intensive search for a means of detecting the early cardiac; second, the organization of our present resources, both medical and public health, in order to apply effectively our present knowledge to the known cardiac and bring him to good medical care of such a nature as to delay or prevent his total invalidism; third, to organize our present local health structure so that it is ready to accept the fruit of research with the least confusion and be of the greatest possible assistance to medicine in reducing the vast numbers of cases and deaths from diseases of the heart and arteries.

A heart control program, which was discussed as a community, state, and national as well as individual problem, would have four major objectives. Deteriorating the extent of the heart disease problem in local communities would be quite necessary. An accurate analysis would have to be made of the present unsatisfied needs of the actual and potential heart patients in the community. The role of medical, public health, and various agencies in meeting those needs would have to be determined. And it would be imperative that local physicians participate in the program and encourage ever-increasing improvement in the quality of medical care for cardiacs.

These basic objectives can be realized through such activities as the following:

1. Refresher courses in heart disease for local physicians.
2. Courses in the public health aspects of heart disease for local health and welfare workers.
3. Case-finding and follow-up activities, including heart screening programs, to assist in getting patients under medical care at much earlier stages.
4. Provision of nutrition consultation services to private and clinic cardiac patients, when advice is necessary.
5. Integration and coordination of community resources for the habilitation of cardiac patients.
6. Community organization directed to the development of a program of lay education in heart disease.

Miss. Welfare Has Fewer Caseloads

The Department of Public Welfare announces decreased caseloads for October in all Public Assistance categories.

In the Aid to Dependent children category the net loss in recipients was 1,110 families involving 2,721 children. Since the department has a limit on the amount of money which can be spent on the Aid to Dependent Children program equal to the amount spent the two years, 1948-1950, it was necessary to reduce drastically the amount paid each individual as well as the caseload. More restrictive policies cut the caseload about half of what it was July 1, 1950, and amount of payment was reduced on percentage basis.

In the past the Aid to Dependent Children families received about 55 per cent of their budgeted needs. This was all that was permissible under the state law limiting payment of $15.00 to the second child, and $5.00 to each other child.

The blind recipients and the old age recipients have allowed for their budgets the same basic requirements of food, clothing, shelter, etc., as the children, but the average grant for the Aid to the Blind recipients is $24.40, the average grant for the Old Age Assistance recipients is $19.34 while the average grant for each child is $8.42.

The Aid to the Blind reduction of 26 cases was due mainly to the removal of those blind children who are educable and for whom the state has built the state school for the blind. Also the maximum payment which can be received by any blind person was lowered to $30.00, the same as Old Age Assistance.

The Old Age Assistance caseload decreased by 1,305. About 550 of these were persons who received increased benefits under the Old Age and Survivor's Insurance program. Approximately 600 of these people died. The remainder were closed for various reasons, including the return of the recipient to work, increased earnings from crops which rendered the person ineligible on the basis of income, the ability of relatives to support, and other miscellaneous reasons.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

Xmas Tree In Water Is Safety Measure

By MISS MADGE ALLRED

1. Be sure to keep your Christmas tree setting in water. That's the best way to keep it fresh and green; when it's that way, it's more fire-resistant. We can't think of anything that burns more fiercely than a dried-out Christmas tree. So we're always just a bit leary of fire around home during the holiday season.

2. Another way to make a tree more fire-resistant is to spray it with water glass (sodium silicate; you can get it at the drug store or hardware store). Use 9 parts of water glass and 1 part water, plus a teaspoonful of a detergent (like Tide, Dettol, Surf, etc.) for each quart of spray. This mixture will coat the tree with a shiny, transparent covering that helps keep the needles from drying out and falling.

REMEMBER WHEN

... chair backs became drying racks

Wet clothes in the kitchen, in the bathroom, all over the house. Sometimes it took days and days to get them dry in damp winter weather. Nowadays, lots of folks dry their wash in automatic natural gas clothes driers—gleaming white tumblers that dry clothes just right for ironing, or turn them out soft and fluffy, ready to fold and put away. They handle a full washing machine load with ease and dry it in less than an hour. See the new, natural gas clothes driers. They're inexpensive, easily installed and economical to operate. Now on display wherever fine gas appliances are sold.

Research being done by natural gas companies and appliance manufacturers is continually producing appliances that serve you better, at lower cost. Natural gas companies are respected civic-minded citizens of every community they serve—providing good jobs and placing many thousands of dollars in the channels of trade. They are excellent examples of the way private investors and business management combine to build prosperity for people in all walks of life.
